

2022 MOVE UNITED EDUCATION CONFERENCE

PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

Move United requires that participants conduct themselves in a safe and respectful manner to help maintain a fun and comfortable environment throughout the event.

The Code of Conduct is intended to help provide a positive experience for all and applies to the duration of Move United Education conference. All event participants including athletes, staff, presenters, attendees, and volunteers must read and adhere to the Code of Conduct.

General

All participants must:

- Treat each other with respect and consideration.
Harassment is prohibited. Harassment is any conduct and behavior that interferes with work and learning, or creates an offensive environment. This includes but is not limited to: obscene gestures, physical contact, use of profanity, language and display or circulation of written materials or pictures derogatory to gender, race, color, religion, creed, sexual orientation, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, political beliefs, appearance or ethnicity.
- Avoid abusive and neglectful behavior.
Abuse and neglect may include actions that manifest physically, verbally, sexually, or mentally. Abuse or neglect of any type is not tolerated and is cause for immediate dismissal.
- Follow the Move United Sport Protection Policy. Violations of the policy are to be reported, will result in action by Move United, and may lead to dismissal.
- Report any practice or situation that endangers the health, safety, or well-being of yourself, employees, contractors, volunteers, sponsors and program participants. You have an ethical responsibility to inform one of the following people: Cayla Hammaker, Event Manager, (610)-425-8658 or Julia Ray, Programs Director, (301)-217-9840.
- Not be under the influence of any substance that impairs their ability to participate in event activities.
- Not smoke or use tobacco products of any type, including e-cigarettes at event activities.
- Not use or possess alcohol or marijuana if under the age of 21.
- Keep personal effects including valuables and medications secured. Move United is not responsible for any personal effects.
- Keep all event areas neat and clean and be respectful of other people's property.

COVID-19 Policies & Protocols

EVENT VACCINATION POLICY

For the health of all Move United Education Conference participants, Move United is requiring everyone attending the event* to be fully vaccinated and to bring proof to onsite registration check-in.

Attendees who do not bring proof onsite may be asked to leave the event at their own expense.

 Note: It is important to understand that this event utilizes public venues and that both vaccinated and unvaccinated individuals will therefore be present.*
