Clinic Summary Notes

Clinic Topic: Lead Effective & Stress-free Adaptive Class Lessons for Guests with Stand-up Physical Diagnoses - Ryan Latham ryanclatham@gmail.com

1. Effective Class Management: Learn to manage adaptive class lessons for guests with stand-up physical diagnoses, focusing on stress-free, safe environments. Emphasize goal setting, lesson planning, and small group teaching strategies.
2. Chairlift Procedures: Gain skills in managing chairlift operations, including loading, riding, and unloading. Develop tactics for ensuring safety and enhancing social engagement during these activities.
3. Lesson Planning: Create simple, goal-oriented lesson plans that cater to group needs. Use multiple student-based goals and highlight common movement patterns to improve understanding across different equipment.
4. Developmental Strategies: Apply the CAP model (Cognitive and Affective Development) to tailor lesson pacing and instruction complexity. Practice scaling instructions to suit different cognitive and affective levels.
