Hosted by The Hartford Ski Spectacular

December 10-11, 2025

Clinic Summary Notes

Clinic Title: 2-Day Workshop: The Unconventional Monoskier – Geoff Krill

1. Every monoski is not the correct choice for every student. Have an understanding of potential differences and adaptations to create the perfect learning scenario for your students.
2. Researching monoski designs and manufacturers to have a better understanding of each one's strengths and weaknesses.
3. Remember loading and unloading independence may be a factor in your equipment choice.
4. Student assessment is key to choosing a monoski vs. another piece of sit-down equipment. Background information in the student file is just a brief snapshot of the situation. "Interview for Success."
5. Familiarize yourself with different loading procedures and safety protocols as they relate to various monoskis and school protocols.
6. Read more about monoskiing in the Adaptive Alpine Technical Manual <https://thesnowpros.org/professional-development/digital-manuals/>
  - A. Teaching progressions for monoskiing, chapter 10, pgs. 183-193
  - B. Procedures Chapter 8 lift pgs. 146-159
  - C. Student Assessment Chapter 2
7. Familiarize yourself with monoski progressions from beginner through intermediate zones.
8. Having a solid understanding of the Alpine Fundamentals is crucial to make adaptations for monoskiers. You need to have an understanding of these in order to implement positive/beneficial cause and effect relationships.
9. Familiarize yourself with the Fundamentals of Alpine Skiing Across Adaptive Disciplines, <https://thesnowpros.org/professional-development/digital-manuals/>.
